Summary:

On July 25th 2016, at approximately 5:16 in the evening, Officers from the Colton Police Department responded to the 1600 Block of North Jantzen in reference to a missing person's report call. During the course of their investigation Officers learned the missing person may have been a victim of homicide and detained a person of interest at the scene. The Colton Police Department Detective Division responded and determined the person detained was the suspect in the missing person's case. Detectives located a shallow grave in the backyard of the residence. The San Bernardino County Coroner's Office is assisting Detectives in recovering the remains and preserving evidence. The suspect, Delgadillo, was arrested and booked into the San Bernardino County West Valley Detention Center on P.C. 187 Murder. Efforts to determine identity and cause of death are ongoing.
