Road Rage ShootingUpdate

Date: December 7, 2017
From: Sergeant Tim Heusterberg
Location: 1000 block of South Mt. Vernon, Colton CA
Suspect: Alliyah Williams, 22 years of age, San Bernardino
Chastity Johnson, 24 years of age, Riverside
Case: 17-08120

Summary:

On December 6, 2017 at approximately 11:11 AM Colton Police Officers responded to a call of shots fired at Cricket Wireless located in the 1000 block of South Mt. Vernon. While responding to the location, officers were updated that the suspects were driving a white four door sedan and identified as two black female adults. Officers arrived at the location and observed the glass window to the business was shattered. Patrons and employee at the business were not harmed and the suspects fled prior to police arriving on scene. The victim stated that this stemmed from a road rage incident as they pulled into the shopping center. When the victim confronted the other driver in the parking lot, that driver produced a semi-automatic handgun and shot in the victim's direction.

Updated Information/Arrest of Suspects

Detectives from the Colton Police Department followed up on investigative leads related to the shooting. On December 6, 2017 Detectives and Patrol Officers conducted surveillance for suspects at a residence in the Highgrove area of Riverside County. During the surveillance two suspects were later located and detained for questioning. A search warrant was served for the residence and related vehicles. A firearm and other evidence were located linking the two detained suspects to the crime. Both suspects were later arrested and booked into county jail. Williams was arrested for Assault with a Deadly Weapon and Johnson was arrested as an Accessory.

The Colton Police Department Detective Division is handling the investigation. Anyone with any information is encouraged to contact the Colton Police Department at 909 370-5000.
