COLTON, CA. — On March 11, 2025, at approximately 5:59 PM, the Colton Police Department Communications Center received reports of multiple individuals shot in the 1400 block of Veterans Way. Upon arrival, police officers found several victims suffering from gunshot wounds. The officers immediately administered life-saving measures until they were relieved by personnel from the Colton Fire Department. Two victims were transported by ambulance to a local hospital in serious condition. A third victim was later identified after they sought their own treatment at the same hospital.

The Colton Police Department's Detective Division responded to the scene and assumed the investigation. Anyone that witnessed or has information regarding this investigation is encouraged to contact Sergeant Shawn McFarland at (909) 370-5000 or via email at smcfarland@coltonca.gov.
